VILLAGE WINES

We make mountain wines. The Andes Mountain Range determines the identity of our wines, since it is decisive in the climate, water and soils.

We believe that the Uco Valley is, due to its proximity, the area that best expresses the mountain identity in Mendoza. Since we began to explore its diversity, I was captivated by the austere richness and uniqueness of each of its villages.

Polígonos is the expression of those villages of the Valley. These are wines that make us travel through those places, through their landscapes, climates and soils.

Its grapes come from different places that can be imagined on a map with diverse shapes and edges. A capricious geometry as diverse as the sides of a Polygon. As diverse as the wines of each village.

POLÍGONOS SAUVIGNON BLANC TUPUNGATO 2024

ORIGIN

La Carrera, Tupungato, Valle de Uco.

1500 m | 4922 ft.

THE PLACE

La Carrera is a small valley formed between the Frontal Mountain Range and the Sierra del Totoral, with an altitude between 1400 and 1800 meters. This location gives it an authentic mountain climate – very cold, extreme, and rainy. Its landscape is completed by a great diversity of reliefs and soil types.

HARVEST

The 2024 harvest was mild and dry, with slow and gradual ripening, resulting in excellent health in the grapes and wines with freshness, structure, excellent natural acidity, balance, and elegance.

VINIFICATION

Direct pressing. Maceration on the skins before beginning the fermentation. Fermentation and aging in concrete vessels. Without malolactic fermentation.

COMPOSITION

VARIETY: 100% Sauvignon Blanc
